

House Resolution No. 3102

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives hold in high esteem those Show-Me State educators who have developed and maintained exemplary reputations for the excellence of their endeavors; and

Whereas, Donna Null has attained considerable distinction as a Special Education Teacher at Green Tree Elementary in the Wentzville School District; and

Whereas, Donna Null recently enhanced her already stellar list of professional accomplishments by being named as the 2003 Wal-Mart Teacher of the Year for the Wentzville School District; and

Whereas, nominated for the Wal-Mart Teacher of the Year award by student Zack Reed, Donna Null is universally acclaimed for her support of emotionally disturbed and combative children; and

Whereas, demonstrating unparalleled love and patience, Donna Null teaches difficult or combative children without complaint and without giving up; and

Whereas, in addition to the positive contributions made on a daily basis by Donna Null, Green Tree Elementary School will receive $1,000 as a result of Donna Null's selection as Wal-Mart Teacher of the Year; and

Whereas, Donna Null is the loving mother of Daniel and Jared Meehan, both of whom support and encourage her professional and personal endeavors in their own special ways; and

Whereas, it is fitting and proper that Donna Null be praised for her service as a respected role model not only for her peers, but also for the many children which she so nobly assists in the classroom setting:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the well-deserved selection of Donna Null as the 2003 Wal-Mart Teacher of the Year in the Wentzville R-IV School District and to convey to her this legislative body's heartiest congratulations and best wishes for continued educational success for many more years to come; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution in honor of Donna Null of Green Tree Elementary School in Lake St. Louis, Missouri.
